Ereira Mendoza opens in Russia

Ereira Mendoza has today announced the opening of its new venture, Ereira Mendoza Russia.

Specifically formed to deal with investment by new and existing clients from the UK and America into the Russian market and also by high-net-worth Russians into the UK market. Ereira Mendoza Russia is already handling a potential investment portfolio of over $90M, with projects in Moscow and St. Petersburg.

To head their new Russian venture, Ereira Mendoza has appointed Steven Grinberg as its new international investment and development associate. Grinberg, was previously a senior surveyor with CB Richard Ellis in London and Sydney, Australia. A fluent Russian speaker, Grinberg will spend equal time between London and Moscow and is tasked with cross-fertilising Ereira Mendoza's growing portfolio of Russian investment and development clients in London, Moscow and St Petersburg.

Exciting times

David Ereira, managing director of Ereira Mendoza, said:

'Steven joins at a time of recent, significant growth for the company, and will develop a raft of exciting opportunities in the UK as well as in Russia. We are responding specifically to client demand for a parallel strategic investment and development consultancy service for the Russian market, similar to the service that we have offered in the UK and continental Europe for the past 18 years.'
